

DETAILS OF BUSINESS

At Thomas Scott, all our formal shirts have been crafted to the same exacting standards, keeping alive the impeccable heritage of premium shirting. The exclusive collection is finished down to the tiniest detail for a designer look that is unmistakably stylish. A feeling of luxury like no other...the style and sophistication of Italian tailoring designed with finesse and cut to flatter.

The entire collection of Thomas Scott brings you the season's key trends, perfectly edited to give you your inspirational, yet attainable style wardrobe. Small changes in how you wear these shirts can make a big change in how they look, wear open at the collar with jeans for a distinctly casual feel, or with a blazer (and even a knitted tie) for a smart, preppy look.

Thomas Scott also offers semi-formal, but thoroughly smart selection of Business casual shirts. Try wearing with an unstructured blazer, chinos and a nifty pocket square to utterly perfect the smart business casual look.

Our range - men's formal wear & casual wear are a unique combination of style and comfort that has led to our rapid growth and progress. Our wide range of quality products has enabled us to develop a strong customer loyalty. Every product of our company bears the mark of excellence in terms of quality and innovation. Our products are available in a wide range of colors, designs and patterns. We offer customized products based on customer specifications.

Quality is not just a norm for us; it is a commitment we follow. We have employed qualified professionals who endlessly perform quality checks at various stages of manufacturing to assure superior quality for our products. We import our raw materials from the most reliable sources in European markets. Our quality department cross checks these high quality and rare fabrics. We have engaged our quality control managers in the process of monitoring every step of the production process. Maintaining high quality standards at every stage helps us to manufacture excellent quality clothing fabrics and hence maximize customer satisfaction.

We have been toning up our infrastructure and have done everything needed to be globally recognized. After careful planning, we have developed two highly efficient garment manufacturing units in Bangalore and Europe (Macedonia). In these units, we use modern machinery that is pretty flawless when it comes to manufacturing of flawless quality products. We have acquired a set of highly professional designers who are well versed with the characteristic of different fabrics used in our clothes. These well-versed designers work in close co-ordination with the manufacturing engineers to keep making impeccable clothing for men. Our manufacturing units have an added advantage of being in close co-ordination with our vendors, which helps us in fast and on time delivery of our products. The infrastructure for our company has been built keeping in mind our values of quality, and commitment to provide flawless products in stipulated time frame.
